USING FIGHTERBASE

How to use this food list

This food list is part of your eating styles library in the FighterBase app. The pages that follow are built to be skimmed. You do not need to read it all at once.

1. Open Nutrition
   In the app, open the Nutrition tab and tap Eating styles.

2. Tap Kosher
   Read the short summary, what to eat, what to go easy on, and what to watch.

3. Follow it
   Tap Follow this style. Recipes and the Foods list then filter to match, so you only see what fits. You can follow more than one style.

4. Download the PDFs
   Use Full food list and Diet guide to save these to your phone. Handy for the shop or a restaurant.

5. Log it and train
   Meals you log count towards your day. Spend your energy on training, not on reading labels.

The colour key

Brand products vary. This list is built from the FighterBase food catalogue of 505 common foods. If a food is not here, ask which group it belongs to and check the label.

AT A GLANCE

Kosher on one page

Food that meets Jewish dietary law (kashrut). No pork or shellfish, meat from kosher sources, and meat and dairy not eaten together.

Mostly yes

- Salmon (fresh, farmed or wild)
- Smoked salmon
- Hen eggs (whole)
- Egg whites (carton)
- Spinach
- Kale
- Carrots
- Beetroot
- Strawberries
- Blueberries
- Almonds
- Walnuts
- Extra virgin olive oil

Mostly no

The big ideas

1. Permitted land animals have split hooves and chew the cud (beef, lamb, goat, deer). Pork and rabbit are not kosher.
2. Permitted fish have fins and scales. Shellfish and other seafood without fins and scales are not kosher.
3. Meat and poultry must be slaughtered by a trained person and prepared in the prescribed way.
4. Meat and dairy are not eaten together, and separate utensils are used. Waiting times between meat and dairy vary by community.
5. Foods are classed as meat (fleishig), dairy (milchig) or neutral (pareve, such as fish, eggs, vegetables).
6. Passover has additional rules about leavened foods.

> Talk to a professional first if: You have a medical condition and are fasting (for example Yom Kippur); You are pregnant, breastfeeding or under 18 and fasting.

READ THE LABEL

Hidden ingredients

Ingredients can hide in the small print. Look for these on packaging, menus and supplements.

- Look for a recognised kosher mark (hechsher) and whether it says meat, dairy or pareve
- Gelatine and rennet: usually not kosher unless certified
- Grape products (wine, grape juice, some vinegars) need certification
- Insects in leafy vegetables: check carefully

For fighters and combat athletes

- No eating style makes a rapid weight cut safe. Sweating, fluid restriction and crash diets hurt performance and can be dangerous. Plan any weight cut with a registered sports dietitian and your coach, well before the weigh-in.
- Fuel the training first. Hard sparring and conditioning need carbohydrate and enough total food. If a style cuts a food group, have a plan to replace what is lost.
- Protein across the day. A common general range for people training hard is about 1.4 to 2.0 g per kg of body weight a day (draft range, to be confirmed by a dietitian).
- Try changes in training, never in fight week. Test new foods, supplements and timing well before competition.
- Under 18, pregnant, or with a medical condition: get advice from a doctor or dietitian before changing your diet.
